Description

Painting depicting two young women, Paul L. Billou (1821-1868), oil on panel.m.: 32 x 24 cm. Billou distinguished himself for his depictions of everyday life, genre scenes, and female subjects in natural or landscape settings. His works often depict intimate or picturesque moments, focusing on the human figure immersed in the landscape. He primarily used oil on canvas (or panel), with a style that reflects the academic or romantic French taste of the 19th century. His works show particular attention to detail, clothing, and a bucolic or serene atmosphere. Ref. 650/410
