Description

Oil on canvas painting depicting an 18th-century landscape with ruined architecture. On the left, a partially collapsed stone tower stands amidst rocks and vegetation. In the center and background, a valley opens up with a stream and distant hills. In the foreground, small human figures nestle within the landscape. The scene is constructed with atmospheric perspective and warm lighting, typical of 18th-century landscape painting inspired by "classical ruins."
Gilded wooden frame.
