Description

We are pleased to present this early 20th-century oil on panel painting. This splendid coastal landscape of Naples is signed lower right: U. Allason. It is likely the work of the Italian painter Ugo Allason (Turin, November 1, 1844 - Turin, November 21, 1920), without authentication. This small painting captures the charm of the Italian coast in the city of Naples. The imposing silhouette of Castel dell'Ovo rising from the sea is clearly visible. This beautiful view of the Gulf of Naples was a much-loved subject for Italian landscape painters of this period. This painting stands out for its evident pictorial quality and highly personal style, with particular attention to the rendering of light and reflections on the water. If you know Naples and its gulf, you will be captivated by this painting, so much so that you
