Description

Elegant polychrome majolica holy water stoup. The piece is composed of two parts, the plaque and the basin, connected by iron elements. At the center is a depiction of the baby Jesus holding the cross, flanked by two angels above him. The frame is decorated with polychrome geometric motifs, lending further refinement to the overall design. This holy water stoup exudes great taste and elegance, adding a touch of class and antique elegance to any space. It is also in perfect condition. Tuscan manufacture, from the famous Montelupo ceramic workshop, dating back to the late 17th century.
