Description

Mid-century modern highboard This wooden wall cabinet has a lockable space in the top left corner and an open structure on the right-hand side. There is also a middle compartment and a compartment at the bottom with white sliding doors and charming brass handles. This provides plenty of storage space and display options. The original shape and slender legs give the cabinet an elegant look. 121 cm wide, 46 cm deep and 130 cm high. In good vintage condition, only minor signs of wear consistent with its age.
