Description

Superb large English solid mahogany table from the early 20th century composed of three four-legged pillars. This superb table features three pillars in solid mahogany legs ending in bronze casters. The beautiful and practical base allows people to sit comfortably all around the table. Furthermore, the three legs are a significant advantage, as the table is almost three meters long. This is important for its strength and stability. It has a stunning solid mahogany top with a magnificent flame-like grain. The table is in three sections. A very elegant and well-proportioned table. Superb patina and in perfect condition. Delivery available in Belgium, France, and internationally. Viewable in our showroom at 41 Rue Henri Wafelaerts, 1060 Brussels, Belgium.
