

French Mantel Clock Ormolu Signed Berthoud Quarter Strike Untested As-is Repair

850 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : A restaurer

Material : Bronze

Length : 12

Width : 27

Height : 40

Description

Antique mechanical French mantel clock offered as-is as a restoration/repair project. Clock is untested and not running at time of listing.

Antique French pendulum mantel clock with anchor escapement and hour/quarter strike mechanism (not tested). Case: ormolu / gilt bronze case Dial signed: Berthoud Period:

Empire, early 19th century (circa) Measures: 40 x 27 x 12 cm Included parts: clock case, movement, dial and hands only. Missing: winding key, pendulum and bell. Known issues: see photos for condition details. Additional faults typical of antique clocks should be expected. Timekeeping, strike and power reserve have not been tested and no guarantee of operation is given. Item should be considered a restoration or repair project. Clock will be carefully packed for shipping, movement

Dealer

Orologeria Aurili

Antique watchmaking workshop

Tel : +39066873578

via del Clementino 104

Roma 00186

secured or removed when necessary, double-boxed. International buyers are responsible for duties and import taxes. Returns accepted only if item is not as described. Please review photos and description carefully before purchase. Professional restoration or servicing may be available upon request; restoration costs are not included in this listing.