Description

Pair of Art Deco Bulldog Bookends in Spelter on Griotte Red Marble, Early 20th Century. Dating from the late Art Deco period (1910-1939), this pair of bookends is rare. The bulldog figure is uncommon in this style. This adorable dog is depicted sitting guarding its owner on a Griotte red marble base. A perfect blend of geometric design and poetic charm, this pair would be ideal in the library of a book and dog lover seeking a classic decorative piece. In good overall condition, one of the bookends has a small chip on one of the marble points. Fast and careful shipping to France, Europe, and worldwide.
