Description

An oil painting titled "Young girl at the fountain" by the Italian artist Vincenzo Irolli (1850-1945). The artwork depicts a young girl standing next to a stone fountain structure. She wears a long reddish-orange skirt, dark top, and head covering, and is wiping her eyes with a white cloth. She holds a metal pitcher in her left hand, which rests near flowing water. The background features light-colored stucco on the right and a dark, possibly vegetated, area on the left. The painting is housed in a deep, ornate gold-toned wooden frame featuring intricate molded leaf and scroll patterns on the outer border and fluting on the inner section.
