Description

Large carved and gilded wood fireplace mirror, France, late 19th century - Louis XV style. This elegant rectangular mirror with a scalloped top is richly carved with scrolling foliage, acanthus leaves, and a central openwork cartouche framed by foliate scrolls. The finely crafted wooden frame features beautiful gilding with a warm, nuanced patina, highlighting the depth of the decoration. A delicate beaded frieze on the inside frames the glass, adding finesse and refinement to the whole. Its harmonious proportions (137 x 81 cm) make it an ideal piece for a fireplace, entryway, or elegant, classic living room. Highly decorative, luminous, and well-balanced. French work from the late 19th century, in the Louis XV style. Dimensions: Height: 137 cm Width: 81 cm. Very good overall condition.
