Description

This 1960s vase is a true sculpture, weighing a substantial 5.9 kilograms. It's a Murano piece with a lovely free-form shape. Note the glass block that extends to a white background; the interior is blue with an orange and red background--perhaps a name is behind this creation. We note some rubbing and light micro-scratches, a line, a bulge, and bubbles, which are likely firing flaws. However, it is in good overall condition and will make a statement in a vintage interior. Sold uncleaned. For condition details, please examine the photos carefully. Don't hesitate to zoom in. The photos are an integral part of the description. Dimensions: Height: 35 cm, Total Width: 23 cm, Total Depth: 10 cm. M514
