

Pair Of Dressing Cases, 18th Century

880 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Width : 27,5

Height : 10,5

Depth : 19,5

Description

A charming pair of dressing cases, often called "wig boxes", rectangular in shape with slightly domed lids, made of wood lacquered with Martin varnish in imitation of Chinese lacquer, gold on red background, the lids decorated with gallant scenes in a rock garden, the sides adorned with bouquets of flowers and foliage (wear and minor damages). Second half of the 18th century. Good condition.

Dealer

Cléry Antiques

18th century furnitures and fine art objects

Tel : 0689602398

Mobile : 06 89 60 23 98

86 rue de Cléry

Paris 75002