Description

A brass bouillotte lamp with a green lacquered metal shade. This electrified, three-light model faithfully reproduces the aesthetic of candle lamps, with its bobeches adorned with faux wax drips and its arms joined in a central bundle. The gently molded, shallow base ensures stability while emphasizing the slender silhouette of the stem. The height-adjustable shade slides along the central stem thanks to a discreet mechanism, allowing you to adapt the light intensity to the desired ambiance. The three lights, also height-adjustable, offer beautiful symmetry and enhance the overall decorative character. This lamp combines classic refinement and modern functionality, ideal for creating a warm ambiance on a desk, console, or side table.Period: Late 19th century. Good condition.
