Description

Italian Mid-Century Round Two-Tiered Sofa Table in Travertine Stone, 1960s This elegant and dynamic coffee table stands out thanks to its sweeping design and natural appeal. The round base (diameter 46 cm) is covered with two semicircular legs, on top of which two wooden panels are mounted. The two table tops, which are of different heights (39cm and 43cm), now rest on these wooden panels. The object is heavy in terms of material, but exudes a sense of lightness in its appearance. The different shades of beige in the material create a soft and appealing effect. The stone is intact and without any stains.
