Description

A refined set of four Victorian-era English chairs, an expression of high-quality craftsmanship and timeless style. Crafted from precious solid wood, they feature a slender and balanced line, with finely contoured open backrests embellished with delicate inlaid motifs on the upper portion, lending them a simple and distinctive elegance. The curved, harmoniously curved legs lend a sense of visual lightness. The seats, recently upholstered in leather, are comfortable and ready for use, further enhancing the wood and its age-old patina. Ideal for enhancing a classic dining room, a formal study, or an elegant setting, these chairs combine history, comfort, and prestige, making them a highly charming set that is hard to find on the market.
