Description

Noirmoutier at the Red Buoy by René Margotton (1915-2009). From a very young age, he was passionate about drawing and colors, and began his first oil paintings in Marseille. Mobilized in 1939, the armistice allowed him to resume his work. He painted extensively and held several exhibitions in the provinces. He settled in Paris in 1945 and enrolled at the École des Beaux-Arts, then moved into Fernand Léger's studio in 1948, for whom he developed a profound fascination. In very good condition. 60cm x 45cm
