Description

A charming table centerpiece, this Baccarat pineapple-cut crystal vase from the 1960s features a base adorned with acanthus leaves and a guilloché neck in mercury-gilded bronze with a vibrant gold finish. With its beautiful silhouette and small proportions, this lovely table decoration, reminiscent of a 17th-century French garden crater, will serve a decorative purpose and add a touch of preciousness to a bright and refined table setting. A form of great elegance that was very fashionable during that era, it's easy to see why this pretty vase is in perfect condition, as if it had just been taken out of its case.
