Description

A lovely and sensitive Impressionist work from the late 19th century depicting a terrace with a wrought-iron railing, overlooking trees below with beautiful, tender green foliage and pink blossoms of a fruit tree. A beautiful atmosphere pervades this inspired work, with its monochrome palette and deliberate blurring. It's a charming painting where the eye does the rest, with light as its only guide. A decorative and well-presented piece, the grey-green cerused frame elegantly complements this delightful oil painting on panel. An intimate and well-executed work in good condition, a fine example of quality Impressionist sketching with significant decorative value.
