

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Nevers, 17th Century - Quest Platter With Compendium

170 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Length : 27 cm

Width : 21 cm

Description

NEVERS - 17th Century Circa 1680 Ref.: FC 140 Quest Dish on heel Decoration in "compendiario" The decoration "in compendiario" plays on the material of the enamel which covers the object. This is a simple decoration designed to highlight the thick, opaque white enamel on which it is painted. Central cartouche "IHS" The monogram IHS - sometimes IHC, JHS or JHC - is an abbreviation meaning "Iesus Hominum Salvator" (Jesus, Savior of Humanity) Wide, rotating frieze of cobalt blue scrolls on the rim of the dish A chrome yellow solar cartouche frames the IHS monogram Cobalt blue flames between the sunbeams dispensing divine manna Length: 27 cm Width: 21 cm Thickness at the base: 1.5 cm A chip in the enamel around the edge A hairline crack at the bottom of the dish, not

Dealer

F.C. Concepts

ANTIC DEALER

Tel : 0603310311

Mobile : 0603310311

26 route de Dijon

Ville-sous-la-Ferté 10310

damaging to the piece, which rings perfectly

Shipping via secure Colissimo: France: EUR15

Europe and Rest of the World: please contact us