Description

Franz Bergman Austrian Cold-Painted Bronze Magpie, Signed, Vienna, Early 20th Century An Austrian cold-painted bronze sculpture of a magpie bird by the renowned Franz Bergman foundry, Vienna, early 20th century. Finely cast in solid bronze and meticulously finished with hand-applied cold paint in black and white, the sculpture exhibits excellent naturalistic modeling and expressive detail, characteristic of high-quality Vienna bronzes.The sculpture bears the distinctive Bergman foundry mark, "B" within an urn, to the underside, confirming production by the Franz Bergman workshop. The elongated, dynamic posture of the bird emphasizes movement and anatomical accuracy, making this an especially decorative and lively example.Original cold paint remains throughout
