Description

Vintage multi-strand coral bead torsade necklace. The piece features multiple strands of natural, undyed coral beads in a salmon or pink angel skin color range. The beads are generally small and round with some natural variations in shape, size, and color saturation, typical of genuine coral. The individual strands are designed to be worn twisted together to form a torsade style. It is secured with a clasp crafted in solid 14 karat yellow or white gold, often a box or filigree style with a safety latch. Items of this style often originate from Italian craftsmanship, historically linked to areas like Torre del Greco. Approximate Size & Weight: Length: 55 cm 66.4 grams
