Description

Large Antique Giltwood Mirror with Terracotta Relief, Empire Period - 19th Century. Elegant antique mirror, suitable for tabletop or wall mounting, crafted from carved and gilded wood. The frame features fluted pilasters with capitals adorned with acanthus leaves, typical of the Empire/Restoration style. The pediment is embellished with a blackened terracotta relief panel depicting a mythological or pastoral scene (putto and animals), adding a strong decorative character. The mirror's silvering is antique, with a patina and some natural age-related imperfections that contribute to its authenticity and charm. The original gilding shows regular wear, consistent with its age. Antique wooden backing. Ideal as a centerpiece in an entryway, living room, or bedroom, equally suited to a classic interior or a
