Description

Cow - Bronze Sculpture
After Louis Carvin
20th Century
This bronze sculpture depicts a cow in a calm and dignified stance. The modeling emphasizes the animal's anatomical structure, with a powerful neck, balanced proportions, and careful attention to the legs and facial expression.
The composition reflects the tradition of early 20th-century French animal sculpture, rooted in naturalistic observation and solid craftsmanship.
The work is based on a model by Louis Carvin, known for his refined representations of domestic and farm animals.
Cast in bronze with a nuanced brown patina, the sculpture rests on a rectangular veined marble base, enhancing both its stability and decorative
