4 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

An elegant 19th-century mantel clock set, comprising a clock and a pair of matching candelabra. The set combines finely chased bronze with a nuanced brown patina and delicate gilt bronze appliqués, creating a refined contrast. The clock is adorned with a charming group of two young women draped in classical style, in a graceful neoclassical style. The candelabra echo this decorative harmony: patinated bronze female figures supporting candle arms embellished with decorative chains and gilt candle cups. A high-quality decorative set with an elegant and timeless presence. In very good condition, with a warm patina. Dimensions: Clock: Height: 57 cm Width: 43 cm Depth: 24 cm Candelabra (pair): Height: 85 cm Width (upper part): 33 cm
