Description

Carved and gilded wood mirror. French work. Circa 1870. Dimensions Height 112 cm Width 66 cm. Description Spectacular Napoleon III period mirror, a true statement of the neo-Rococo taste of the Second Empire. Its free and fluid silhouette, inspired by the Louis XV repertoire, unfolds into a theatrical composition of openwork scrolls, shells and acanthus leaves executed with remarkable virtuosity. The deeply carved decoration catches the light beautifully through its original gilding, rich in warm, luminous tones that reveal the full depth of the relief. The original bevelled mirror plate further enhances the elegance and authenticity of the piece. A work of strong decorative presence, ideal for structuring a space: above a fireplace, in an entrance hall, a reception room, or within a
