Description

Rare 18th-century French sacristy chasuble stand in solid oak. It rests on a cross base and features a central shaft supporting a triangular bracket forming a display stand, perfectly suited for holding a chasuble or other liturgical vestment. Its design is at once simple, elegant, and functional, typical of 18th-century ecclesiastical furniture. The piece is sound and stable. We have placed an example of a chasuble (not included in the price) on the display stand. This sacristy object has become rare and is very decorative; it could also be repurposed as a display stand or decorative element in a period or contemporary interior. Dimensions: Height: 167 cm; Width: 77 cm. Feet: 55 x 9 cm.
