Description

Vintage silver gelatin print circa 1890. The photograph "Nude Woman Reading after Jean-Jacques Henner" is inspired by an original work by the French painter Jean-Jacques Henner, known for his representations of female nudes imbued with softness and light, often treated with the sfumato and chiaroscuro techniques. The original work, titled "The Reader" or "Reclining Nude Woman Reading a Book," depicts a reclining nude woman absorbed in her reading, in a poetic and timeless atmosphere. Henner's original work is held at the Musée d'Orsay and the Musée National Jean-Jacques Henner in Paris. - Mounted 40x50cm - Photo size 21 x 27 cm.
