Description

Small portico clock, Louis XVI style, Napoleon III period, also known as a bedroom clock. The portico clock is made of white marble and gilt bronze, richly ornamented. The pendulum is a sunburst medallion, and there are two Wedgwood medallions on each pillar. Note a few small chips in the enamel on the dial near the winding holes (see photo). The base is made of wood. This clock is in good overall condition but is not working. It needs servicing. Dimensions without base: Height 32 cm, Width 20 cm, Depth 13 cm. Shipping costs are the responsibility of the buyer.
