Description

This pair of antique solid brass twin beds exemplifies late 19th to early 20th century craftsmanship, defined by elegant vertical spindle rails, rounded head and footboards, and a warm, naturally aged patina. Each bed measures H: 120 cm, W: 89 cm, L: 188 cm, offering well-proportioned single dimensions suited to both traditional and eclectic interiors. The tubular brass frames are finely balanced with turned detailing and symmetrical structure, reflecting Victorian and Edwardian design influences. Original spring bases remain intact, featuring coiled supports and painted metal frames bearing period trade labels referencing the "Varnoid Process." The mellow golden tone of the brass contrasts with the utilitarian character of the exposed springs, creating visual depth and
