Description

Beautiful early 17th-century Audenarde tapestry with a biblical theme. It depicts the story of Joseph (Genesis 42), when his brothers came to Egypt in search of grain during a famine. The tapestry is in very good condition with beautiful colors and an interesting composition of the background architecture. I guarantee a well-cleaned tapestry in very good condition with its hanging system. If necessary, we will provide you with details of any restoration work that has been carried out. All our tapestries can be viewed at your home in the Provence-Languedoc region and Paris/Île-de-France, France, without obligation. Ask for our terms. Free shipping within France. Full refund if the tapestry does not meet your expectations. Travel throughout France and Europe. Send photographs to
