Description

Vintage Lunel-Style Wall Sconce - 1950s-1960s.

This beautiful vintage wall sconce, inspired by French industrial design from the 1950s-1960s, evokes the iconic style of the Lunel company. It features an articulated black metal arm, allowing for flexible light adjustment, and a conical shade made of cream-colored painted sheet metal that diffuses a soft, directed light. The solid brass wall mount adds an elegant touch and ensures stability. This light fixture, with its functional and clean design, is an ideal piece for lovers of mid-century decor and adjustable lighting. This wall sconce is offered as being in the Lunel style, as there is no formal marking confirming its origin.
