Description

Orientalist painting signed V. Van de Kerkoven - Late 19th century. Exceptional Orientalist work signed lower left by V. Van de Kerkoven, dated 1873. This oil on canvas depicts a musician in a richly colored costume, standing in a finely detailed architectural setting, typical of the exotic inspirations that marked the late 19th century.

The treatment of the subject reveals a meticulous attention to detail and remarkable technical mastery, characteristic of Orientalist painters of this period who blended Romanticism and Realism in their compositions. The original (regilded) carved and gilded frame perfectly complements this historical piece, lending it added elegance while respecting its authenticity.
