Description

Superb item, a single-sided plaque 11.5cm in diameter, weighing 250g, made from cast iron (quite rare in numismatics), executed with great finesse, undoubtedly after an original by Guillaume Dupré (1576-1643). Probably from French Restoration period, after 1815, when Henri IV was considered the number one Bourbon king in hearts of French. Excellent condition, no flaws, it's superb.
