Description

Murano blown glass vase, signed and dated 1981, "Venini Italia" engraved on the base, with original label still present.

The cylindrical body, with its slender and well-balanced proportions, features refined polychrome spiral bands, with an internal wavy motif creating a sophisticated optical effect of movement and luminosity.

The quality of execution is of a high level: perfect chromatic integration, brilliant glass, substantial thickness, and meticulous finishing--an expression of the Murano tradition reinterpreted by the historic Venini furnace in the early 1980s. In excellent condition, free from chips or defects.

An elegant and collectible piece, ideal for enthusiasts of 20th-century art glass and for refined interior settings.
