Description

Important Opalescent Glass Bowl/Centerpiece - Art Deco - 1925 A superb decorative bowl in molded opalescent glass, with a typically Art Deco design, combining geometric elegance and soft lines. General Description: This bowl has a circular shape with six subtly defined lobes, creating a stylized floral effect. The opalescent glass diffuses a milky light with delicate pale blue nuances on the raised edges and side handles, characteristic of early 20th-century Art Deco pieces. The interior structure is punctuated by six raised edges converging towards a central circular base, reinforcing symmetry and visual depth. The slightly projecting and curved exterior handles provide both functionality and sculptural elegance. Characteristics Style: Art Deco Period: 20th century Material: Opalescent molded glass
