Description

Charming marquetry side table, French work from the Second Empire period (mid-19th century). With its flowing shape, it features an elegant, scalloped top adorned with geometric marquetry in a chevron and string pattern, showcasing a carefully chosen veneer in warm hues. The curved apron opens with two drawers on the front, each framed by stringing and fitted with a bronze knob. It rests on four slender, cabriole legs, terminating in bronze feet and sabots, adding refinement and protection. A marquetry stretcher shelf at the bottom harmoniously completes the piece and enhances its stability. Exquisite craftsmanship, balanced proportions, and high-quality workmanship. A decorative and practical piece, ideal as an end table, coffee table, or accent table in an
