Description

Pine Coffee Table - Maison Regain - 1960s. This solid pine coffee table, attributed to Maison Regain, is a French piece from the 1960s. It is distinguished by its understated, architectural design, characteristic of the modernist and minimalist furniture of this period. The rectangular top with its clean lines rests on two wide, solid legs, connected by a central crossbar that ensures perfect stability and reinforces its structured aesthetic. Made of solid pine, it features a beautiful, warm patina and natural grain highlighted by a simple finish, typical of Maison Regain's production, renowned for the quality of its wood and the purity of its lines. Its low profile and balanced proportions make it an ideal piece for a vintage, contemporary, or modernist chalet-style interior. Manufacturer:
