Description

Antique Porcelain Figurine - Group of Children - Decorative Plant Pot/Vase - 19th/Early 20th Century. Charming porcelain group depicting three children in a pastoral scene, forming an elegant decorative planter integrated into a stylized tree trunk. A delicate piece with refined decoration in pale blue and white tones enhanced with gilding. Description: This composition features three children dressed in 18th-century-inspired costumes: one child seated on a tree trunk, a second standing, and a third leaning on their elbow, in a tender and expressive pose. The clothing is finely detailed with: hand-applied gold decoration, floral motifs and scrolls, and delicate finishes on the headdresses and shoes. At the rear, a stylized tree trunk forms a double receptacle, suitable for a planter or vase,
