Description

An elegant antique Louis XVI style carved and gilded wooden bench, resting on fluted, tapered legs joined by a curved stretcher. The openwork apron with twisted decoration and the connecting blocks adorned with rosettes highlight the fine craftsmanship and the overall neoclassical inspiration. Its upholstered seat, covered in a light fabric, provides comfort and visual lightness. This bench will find its perfect place in an entryway, at the foot of a bed, or in a refined living room, adding an elegant and timeless touch. French work from the 19th century, in the Louis XVI style. Good overall condition with a beautiful patina; slight signs of age consistent with its age. Dimensions: Height 53 cm, Width 101 cm, Depth 33 cm
