Description

The category Antique Paintings - Portraits presents an oil painting on cardboard depicting a reclining leopard, created in the mid-20th century. The artwork features a horizontal composition of strong visual impact, with the animal shown in a resting position, characterized by an accurate anatomical rendering and a textured brushwork that enhances the spotted coat of the feline. The warm color palette, dominated by ochre, brown and amber tones, harmoniously contrasts with the light and delicate background, creating a sense of depth and balance. The subject recalls animalier iconography, highly appreciated in antique art collecting and classic and eclectic interior décor. The antique painting is set in an original wooden frame with a silvered finish, consistent with the period and perfectly
