Description

Elegant and refined rectangular mirror in carved and gilded pine wood. The mirror is supported by feral feet decorated with elegant vegetal spirals, which add a touch of refinement. On the upper part, carvings have been made with intertwined plant motifs and a noble coat of arms in the centre, which gives antiquity and nobility to the mirror. In good condition, it retains the original mirror and coeval with the frame. Thanks to its charm and refinement, this mirror is able to make any environment in which it is placed unique and elegant. Marche manufacturing from the early 19th century. Measurements: H x W x D 187 x 94 x 5cm
