Description

This vintage hand-knotted Gabbeh rug is crafted in hand-spun wool and dyed with natural plant and mineral pigments, reflecting the authentic traditions of the Ghashghai nomads of Persia's Fars region. Its minimalist composition features a softly variegated, undyed field punctuated by small, stylised animal motifs rendered in deep red and indigo, creating a quiet yet distinctive visual rhythm. The design language is intentionally reduced, celebrating texture, balance, and the expressive irregularities of tribal weaving. With its characteristically thick, plush pile, Gabbeh rugs are valued for their warmth, softness, and durability. Subtle tonal variations across the ground highlight the organic wool and natural dyes, embodying the raw, elemental spirit from which the name "Gabbeh"
