Description

Elegant early 19th century Venetian desk in solid walnut, featuring clean and functional lines typical of Northern Italian Neoclassical furniture. Its well-balanced proportions (117 x 63 cm, height 82 cm) make it versatile and easy to place in both traditional and contemporary interiors. The front is arranged with three small upper drawers and two rows of side drawers (two on each side), fitted with period metal knobs. The top slides forward to reveal a cleverly designed interior divided into three compartments. One section contains three additional small drawers intended for documents or small personal items. This ingenious layout reflects the refined cabinetmaking tradition of the Venetian area. The front displays attractive walnut grain, while the elegant sabre legs clearly reflect the Neoclassical
