

Pair Of Equestrian Bookends

200 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Brass

Width : 11,5 cm

Height : 17 cm

Description

This pair of brass bookends depicts the majesty of horses. Each end features a horse's head in profile, finely crafted in the style of Salvador Dalí. The quality of the work is evident in the fluid movement of the mane and the strong expressiveness of the gaze. The brass material captures the light beautifully, adding a touch of prestige to a library. In good overall condition, with a few minor scratches (see photos).

Dealer

ANTIC & BROCS

Antiques Flea market

29 B, rue de Boulogne

Neuville-sous-Montreuil 62170