Description

A unique object due to its proportions, we offer you an important pharmacy albarello of large dimensions, no less than 59cm x 29cm.The vase was produced between the end of the mid-eighteenth century and the begin of the XIX century in Albissola, by the factories active in that period and which received authorization from the senate of Genoa to be able to use the symbol of Genoa for their brands: La Lanterna.The vase has been decorated with scenes taken from mythology and the classical world, also adorned with some putto games, and which frame the central scroll bearing the inscription "Acqua Sicoria" (?). above the cartouche there is a noble coat of arms, which probably indicates the noble family that owns the pharmacy.The vase is in excellent condition,
