Description

Refined pendant lantern made of beaten tin. The lantern features a structure characterized by swirling, intertwined, and plant-like decorations. The center is hexagonal, with three colorless glass discs, blown in various ways, inserted on each side, lending further elegance to the overall design. This is an object of great taste and refinement, capable of adding a touch of class and antiquity to any space. Italian manufacture from the Art Nouveau period, around the end of the 19th century. Dimensions: H x W 74 x 34cm
