

Precious Yak Butter Tea Bowl, Wood Trimmed With Tibetan Silver

400 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Diameter : 11,5cm

Height : 7,8cm

Description

Beautiful bowl, traditionally used on Tibet and Mongolia, Nepal, for enjoying the famous yak butter tea... it is made from turned light wood, possibly juniper, set and studded with a thick Tibetan silver mount (low standard), all of which is particularly well crafted. Inside is lined with a thick sheet conforming to shape of this bowl, as is the wide silver-covered rim outside. Hollow base is set by an openwork mount imitating basketry, and bottom features a deeply carved Buddhist medallion. In excellent condition, no chips, no cracks, no restoration, 11.5cm x 7.8cm. Weight: 260g. Tibetan or Central Asian work, 19th or 20th century, a beautiful object! Available for immediate purchase, payable by credit card or PayPal. - eclectic - We are not experts, but have been in the trade for over 50 years. Hassle-free
