Description

The artist Marie-Claude Trehet seems to have settled in the South of France, as evidenced by this village of whitewashed houses reflecting the light. Entitled "The Vineyard," this canvas, undoubtedly painted from life, makes the rows of vines the main characters in this landscape that evokes the essence of summer. Marie-Claude Trehet was born in 1943. She lives in Allauch, a town in the eastern suburbs of Marseille, in the Bouches-du-Rhône department of Provence.
