Karin Mobring

Pair of "Diana" armchairs (Safari Chair)

1970

Leather, linen, and pine

70 × 63 × 60 cm

Designed in 1970 by Swedish designer Karin Mobring, the "Diana" chair belongs to the great tradition of Scandinavian design, combining formal restraint, functionality, and carefully chosen materials. Inspired by the classic safari chair, it features a clean-lined pine frame with stretched linen and leather elements that provide both comfort and structural integrity.

The model's refined simplicity highlights the natural beauty of its materials and reflects the modernist ideals of the 1970s: furniture that is practical, elegant, and adaptable to a variety of
