Description

A beautiful watercolor by Maurice Leloir (1853-1940), a student of his grandfather Alexandre Colin and from a distinguished family of artists. This lovely drawing depicts the Seine and the Pont Neuf, with the bronze equestrian statue of Henri IV located in the Place du Pont-Neuf and the Parisian monuments and buildings along the quays in the background. The colors are exquisitely rendered, and the perspective is beautifully rendered. This watercolor is signed and dedicated in the lower right corner and is presented in a handsome frame that enhances its beauty. Frame dimensions: 37 x 50 cm.
